Reading Comprehension (25 Marks)

Q1) Read this text carefully:

Linda went to a huge shop to look for a new dress last week. She took her little boy Jalal. He was more than one year old. When she reached there, she put her little boy on a chair and said, "Don't move, Jalal." After a short time, Linda looked around. She was sure it was only a minute later, Jalal was not there. She ran round the shop looking for him and calling his name. But there was no good. She ran outside and looked up and down the pavement but there was no sign of him. She was sure he was under a car. She was very frightened. Then two women came round the corner with Jalal. He was laughing. The two women were looking for a policeman because they knew he was lost. They found him standing by Zebra Crossing a hundred meters from the shop. He walked all that way alone. Linda was very happy to find him with no broken legs and arms. At last Linda promised that she would never take her eyes off him again.
